. . . Our Campus

The arch behind Wilson Hall recently became more noticeable through improvements to it and the area around it. Dated 1925-30, the arch formed the front entrance of the campus. "A & M" emblazoned on its crest is a vestige of the First District Agricultural and Mechanical College, as the campus was then called.

The Indians of Coach Larry Lacewell sported a new look this year — the wishbone. The highly-potent ground oriented offense had the Tribe ranking high nationally until a series of wet field conditions and downpours hampered the outside running game. The defense once again was outstanding. Although the Tribe lost a few by close scores, it put the fear of "Indian-Power" into several teams.

Construction began in August, 1980 on the new Communications - Education building. Certainly a new attraction, it is expected to be completed by June, 1982. It will contain three stories and incorporate some 80,000 square feet of floor space. Cost of the new complex, which includes its own parking lot, will be almost $4½ million.

. . . Newest Attractions

This fall students were able to enroll in a class with ASU President Ray Thornton as their teacher. The class is part of the Honors Program, a new attraction which directs additional attention to superior scholarship. Class topics change each semester. Students who wish to enroll in the class must have a cumulative grade point of 3.5 or better and have completed at least 40 hours of college credit.

Building displays is a Homecoming activity that takes a lot of planning and hard work. Organizations on campus joined together this year to create colorful scenes using the theme "Cajun Catastrophe." The displays were moved this year to the stadium area. Other Homecoming activities include choosing royalty, selling mums and of course the competitive football game.

Registration is an event at ASU that occurs once a semester. Students spend most of their time standing in lines to get master cards and class cards. Last summer, incoming freshmen were enrolled by computer . . . a process which may be in store for all of us in the near future.

. . . Events

The Union Board sponsors several concerts each year on the ASU campus. On September 22, 1981, Peter Frampton played at Indian Fieldhouse before a crowd of 1,900 fans, with the Finley Brothers Band as pre-concert performers. On October 2, the Don Williams concert, which featured Marty Colburn and Sundown as the warm-up band, sold out. Both concerts were considered big successes.

The students at ASU show their school spirit and enthusiasm for the football team in many ways. The band not only performs at halftime but shows their support by cheering during the game. The flag corps adds color to the exciting half-time show.

. . . School Spirit

Chief Big Track has been a tradition at Arkansas State University since 1958. When he came into existence, students selected the name for him through a contest. The Chief rides across the south end zone when the Indians score a touchdown. This year's Chief Big Track is Todd Johnson from Corning.

The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity sponsored its fourth annual Miss Greek Pledge Contest this year in November.

Leann Hudson, a freshman from Norphlet, won the title as well as the talent competition. Nineteen girls competed in the pageant and represented several different Greek organizations on campus.

. . . Contests

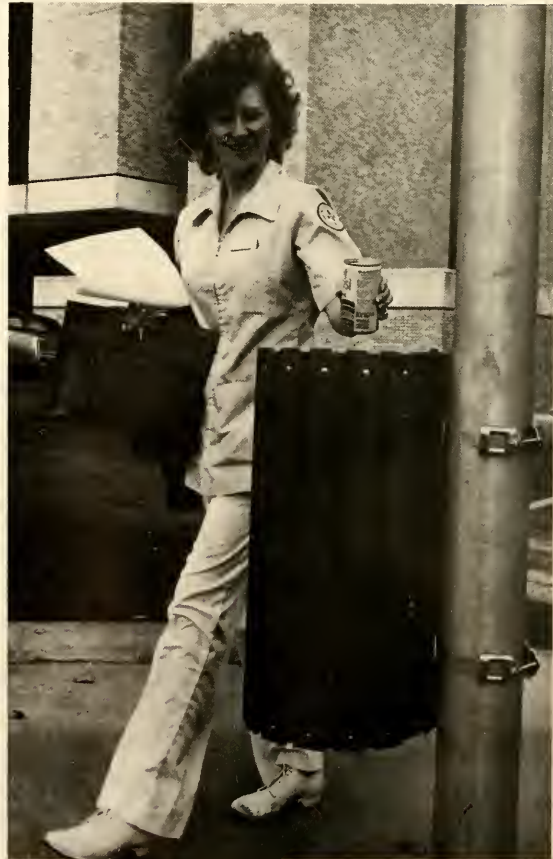

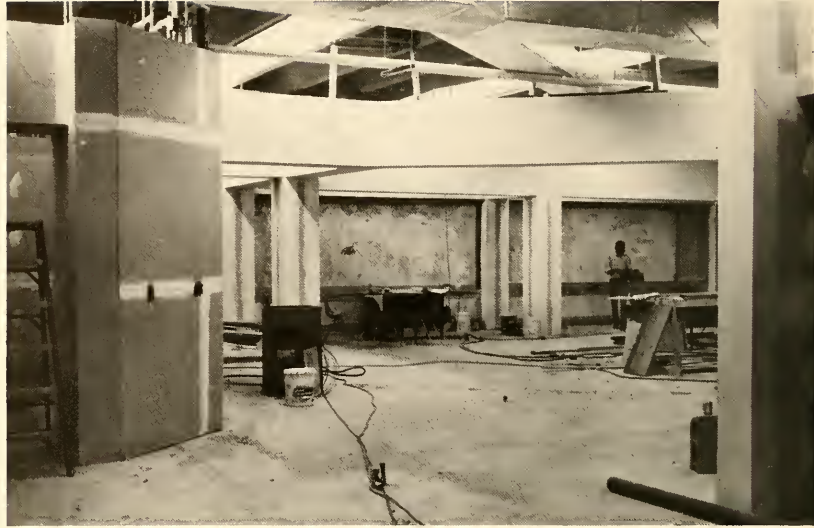

Other contests include the more violent kind. This pertains to the ASU Indian football team and the sports contests its participates in. The Indians finished the season with a 6-5 record.

We also have the dirty contests which include the Pi Kappa Alpha Little Olympics. Sororities on campus compete against each other in events such as tug-of-war, snake chain, limbo and wheelbarrow, many of which are conducted in a mud pit dug for the contest.

. . . Changes and Additions

Changes have taken place on the ASU campus. During the summer, the Physical Plant added new, attractive wastebaskets to the campus to help control littering. Caraway Road was changed to one-way through the campus to create additional parking spaces and new windows were added to Wilson Hall to add beauty and save energy. Construction also began on a new and larger WigWam in what was formerly the bowling and recreation rooms. The new WigWam was finished this spring and offers a larger food selection.

Several new faces were seen on the ASU campus this year, including new instructors, transfer students, freshmen and several international students. The fall enrollment, which was the second highest in ASU's history, contained 2,975 freshmen, with the spring class only slightly lower. Among the international students attending ASU this spring were a group of Saudi Arabian customs officials and some 50 Malaysian students.

ASU received several gifts from various donors. In April 1981 Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity presented ASU with a ceremonial mace for use at formal occasions. W. A. Lacy III donated 15 Arabian horses valued at more than $180,000 and alumnus W. C. Mills, Jr., donated a registered Yorkshire hog valued at $4,000 for use by the animal science department. A gift to the ASU Foundation was the $250,000 Cass S. Hough Aeronautical Library, which includes some 10,000 books, paintings, engravings and historical documents covering the field of aviation from early balloon flight to men on the moon.

Paying Fees

Paying fees can be described as having to stand in line. It can be quite annoying standing in line for what seems like forever — only to find that you were in the wrong line. But as of now, no one seems to have come up with a better solution. So just smile, hang in there and you will make it through.

Time for Class

Greek Rush Begins

Rush is a busy and hectic time for Greeks on the ASU campus. It involves planning parties and activities, rehearsing skits, practicing songs, memorizing names, writing invitations, decorating, meeting many new people and wearing a smile at all times.

Rushes are introduced to the benefits and advantages of Greek life and are told of the many things Greek life can offer them.

The "Go Greek" theme was used again this year to encourage students to pledge a fraternity or a sorority. Even if rushes decided not to pledge, most enjoyed the chance to participate in the Greek activities and to meet members from each group.

Dirty Fun?

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity held its annual Little Olympics Sept. 27. Activities began with a beauty contest among Pike pledges dressed as females by the sororities. Later sororities participated in events such as tug-of-war, wheelbarrow race in the mud, snake-chain, limbo and mud volleyball. Zeta Tau Alpha sorority was the overall winner.

Homecoming Court 1981

Homecoming Queen Sandy Statler of Egypt, reigned over the homecoming festivities and was crowned before the game by SGA president Mark Hayes. Members of the Homecoming court were Lisa Ledbetter of Jonesboro, Susan Cunningham of Hot Springs, Cherie Robison of Jonesboro and Becky Hudson of Mountain Home.

A Look at the Homecoming Displays

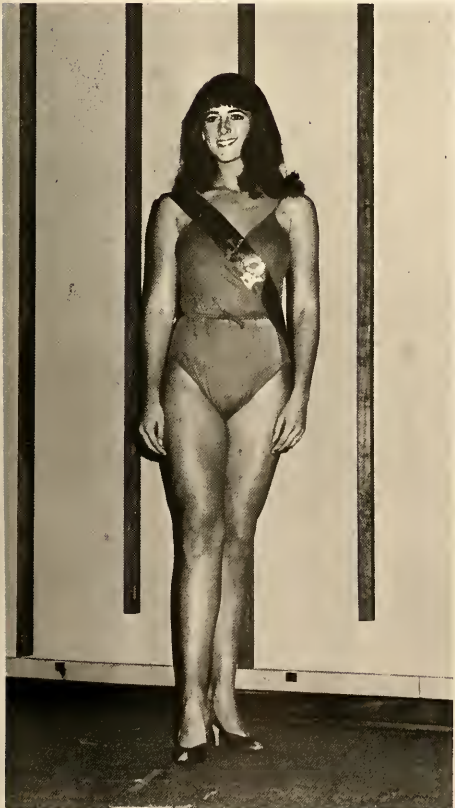

During Homecoming '81, the traditional Homecoming displays built by various campus organizations were moved from the Reng Center lawn to Indian Stadium for the first time. The move allowed visitors and alumni to view the displays as they were going to the game without driving through campus. The winners of the mechanical division were the KA's and the Phi Mu's and first place in the stationary division went to Lambda Chi's and AOPi's.

Lambda Chi Alpha's Miss Greek Pledge

Lambda Chi Alpha held its annual Miss Greek Pledge Contest Nov. 5 to benefit the American Cancer Society. LeAnne Hudson of El Dorado, winner of the talent competition, was crowned the overall winner. The other four finalists were Julie Taylor of Jonesboro, swimsuit winner, Carolyn Perkins of El Dorado, best costume, Kellie Cupp of Delight and Kelly Johnson of Germantown, Tenn.

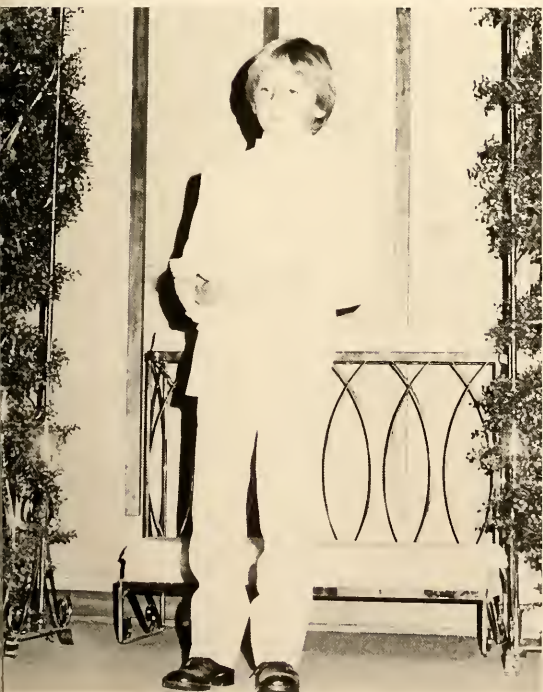

AOPi's Sponsor Bridal Fair

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, along with its local alumnae chapter, sponsored a Bridal Fair March 9 in the Reng Center Ballroom.

Several local merchants participated in the event with booths displaying their wedding items. Each merchant gave a door prize and ASU students modeled various types of wedding attire. The money raised from the fair went to the Arthritis Foundation, philanthropy for AOPi.

Lambda Chi's Win Zeta Follies

Zeta Follies was held March 10, 1982 in Wilson Auditorium. The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity won first place in the competition. Second place went to Sigma Pi and third place went to Alpha Omicron Pi. The money raised from the talent presentation went to the Zeta Tau Alpha philanthropy, the Association for Retarded Citizens. Danny Ridenour was emcee for the event.

Alpha Phi Alpha Sponsors Walkathon

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity sponsored a walkathon in October to raise money for the Crowley Ridge Development Council Head Start Parent-Kiddie Club, and the renovation of the center in Jonesboro.

ROTC Rifle Day

ROTC Fall Awards Day Ceremony was held in the Armory Oct. 14, 1981. Dr. Terence Brown, vice president for academic affairs, presented awards to 13 cadets designated as distinguished military students. Six students received ROTC scholarships, and several were recognized for completion of Basic Camp, Advanced Camp and Airborne School. The Department of Military Science also held a Rifle and Rappelling Day, when any interested student could participate in shooting and rappelling activities.

A Look at the Fingerbowl

Tau Kappa Epsilon beat Sigma Phi Epsilon 12-6 in overtime in the annual TKE Fingerbowl Oct. 31 in Indian Stadium. Several activities were held in conjunction with the game including skits, a pep rally, a parade and a raffle. A fingerbowl court was also selected. The Tekes raised more than $300 for their philanthropy, St. Jude Hospital.

Globetrotters at ASU

The Harlem Globetrotters, those mystical magicians of the court, appeared in Indian Fieldhouse during the fall semester and mesmerized the multitude with their masterful manipulations of the basketball. Their appearance was sponsored by the Indian Club.

College Life

College Life is sponsored monthly by Campus Crusade for Christ, an interdenominational organization for students.

College Life is open to all students and includes skits, singing and door prizes. There is also a speaker who gives talks on such topics as dating, personal goals and self-image. During College Life you are asked to personally examine the claims of Christ.

The Christmas Look at ASU

Snow . . .

Old Man Winter hit our campus with full force this year. Icy drizzle paralyzed our campus and community with a layer of ice on everything.

For those going to work or school the ice and snow was hazardous and bothersome. But for those who wanted to play . . . the weather was perfect.

The ASU Marching Indian Band, directed by Tom O'Connor, performs during half-time at home football games. The 150-member band, supported by majorettes, flag line and rifle team, performs precision marching routines, concert-style selections and majorette dance-twirl routines. The members put in long hours of hard work in order to provide entertainment for the football crowds.

1981-82 Majorettes

ASU's majorette line performs during the half time performances at each home football game. They present various routines that entertain those attending the games.

Fans Look Spirited

ASU fans are full of spirit. This gives the players incentive to play harder and can serve to intimidate the other team. Even those who are too young to attend college and those who have long since graduated are enthusiastic in their support of the Indians, but ASU students are still the Indians' biggest fans

The 1981-82 Indian Cheerleaders (on opposite page) included, first row, left to right: Connie Davis of Hardy, Danita Bowman of Osceola, Tamela Tenpenny of Little Rock, Tricia Bednar of Jonesboro and Jeannie Rains of Jonesboro. Back row: Barry Adams of Paragould, Bill Pyland of Paragould, Tommy John Kennett of Leachville, Keenan Guinn of Menifee, Adam Adams of Leachville and Bill Grogan of Paragould, alternate.

The cheerleaders stay busy throughout the year practicing on cheers, double stunts and chants for promoting spirit. They lead pep rallies and contests to stir interest for the various ASU sports teams. They are selected in the spring of each year during tryouts and spend much of their summer preparing for the busy year ahead.

Ignite Spirit

The ASU Indian Family, a trio of students dressed in elaborate Indian costumes, promotes school spirit at home football games. The family consists of a princess, brave and Chief Big Track, who was named for a famous leader of the native Osage tribe. The 1981-82 chief is Todd Johnson of Corning. Kelly Jones of Little Rock is the princess and Rex Davis of Wynne is this year's brave.

College of Agriculture and Engineering

ASU's College of Agriculture and Engineering provides students with on the job experience in the heart of one of the country's richest agricultural regions. Students have the benefit of 1,200 acres of field, livestock facilities and a vast outdoor laboratory. Equipped with the latest technological advances, students gauge the results of experiments with soybeans, cotton and other crops. The college was authorized this year to expand its offering in the field of engineering.

College of Business

From accounting to computers, ASU business students are exposed to actual challenges in the community. Students in the College of Business gain first hand experience through participation in such projects as marketing potential and analyzing financial structure of nearby businesses. ASU's business students take top honors in national business competition with other universities each year. Business students are heavily recruited by some of the most prestigious companies in the country.

College of Communications

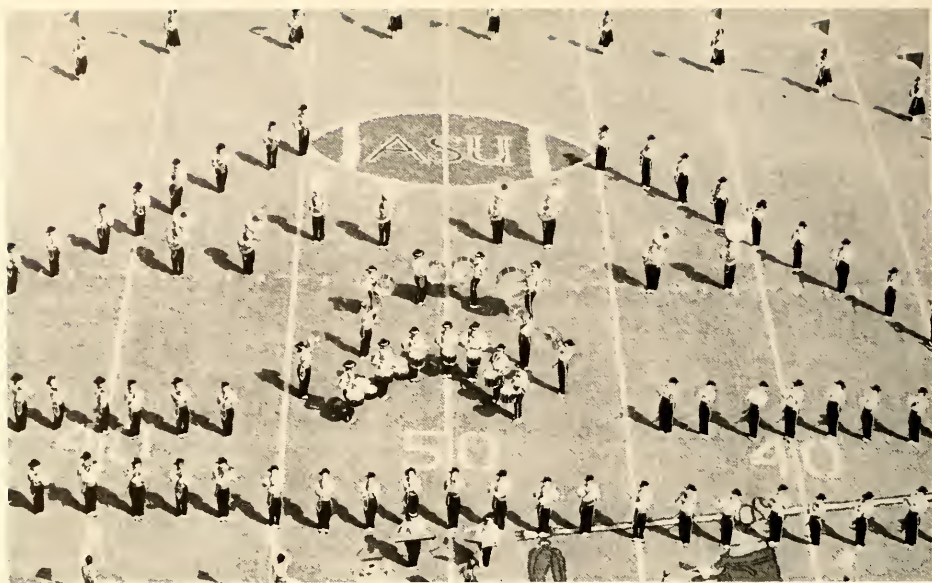

The College of Communications provides students with the opportunity for practical experience in various aspects of communication. Not only are students exposed to courses ranging from public relations to advertising, there is also an unlimited field of extracurricular activities. These activities include broadcasting live from the studios of KASU, the university's 100,000-watt FM radio station, directing and producing live and taped colorcasts from ASU-TV's two studios, and reporting for, editing and managing "The Herald," ASU's twice-weekly campus newspaper.

ASU's College of Education works hand-in-hand with school districts throughout the state to provide students with the experience necessary in the ever changing field of education. Involvement in the various aspects of education allows the classroom lectures to come alive.

College of Education

The College of Fine Arts includes majors in art, music, speech communication and dramatic arts. Students within the college can take courses ranging from painting to ceramics, perform in various drama productions or join one of the various bands, choirs and ensembles. Whatever their major, students can gain valuable experience by participating in an environment where the emphasis is on performance, creativity and self-expression.

College of Fine Arts

College of Liberal Arts

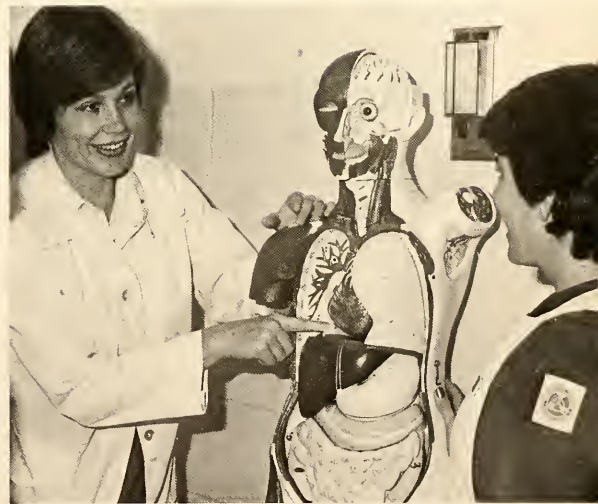

ASU tries to tailor all programs to suit individual needs, including those within the College of Liberal Arts. The college includes four departments: the Department of English, Philosophy and Language; Social Work, Sociology and Geography; History; and Political Science. Each department endeavors to train each student to strengthen intellectual skills required to be successful in almost any profession. The students are also allowed to interact with the community to add excitement to their studies and enrich their training program.

Changing health care services result in a need for well-qualified, skilled nurses, a need ASU's College of Nursing helps to meet. Nursing students may choose either of two options — a two-year associate degree or a four-year baccalaureate program. In either of the two programs, students receive clinical experiences in hospitals, medical centers, mental health clinics, nursing homes and other health agencies. Both nursing programs at ASU are accredited by the National League for Nursing and the Arkansas State Board of Nursing.

College of Nursing

College of Science

The College of Science provides a background in biological sciences, physical sciences and mathematics for students preparing to teach, work in science-related occupations or pursue a graduate program. The college is organized into the Department of Biological Sciences, Chemistry and Mathematics and Physics, all of which guide students in the development of fundamental scientific concepts along with the skills to use those concepts.

Institute of Technology and Management

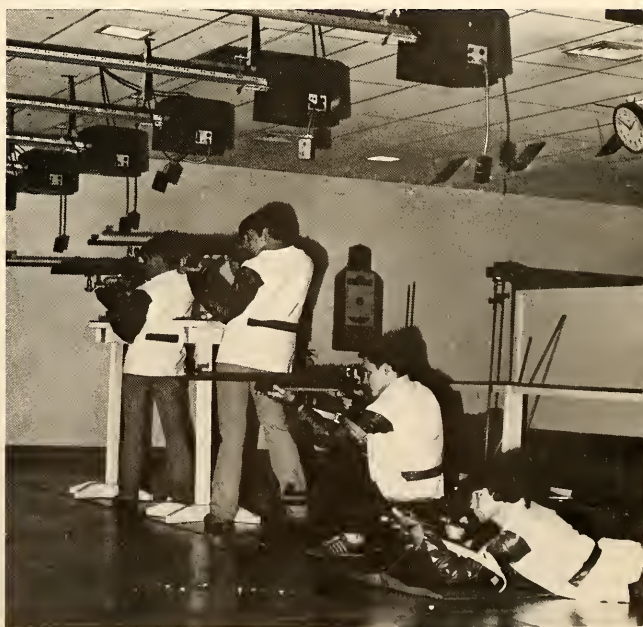

Students in the Institute of Technology and Management are involved in a three-part curriculum consisting of a liberal arts background, core requirements and special emphasis requirements. Special programs may even be designed if existing programs do not meet specific objectives for special majors. ASU has developed several internships with local businesses allowing students to apply their technological knowledge in specific areas of interest.

Department of Military Science

In conjunction with the U. S. Army, ASU offers an opportunity for students to participate in the Reserve Officer's Training Corps (ROTC). The basic course is offered to students without any military obligation. The advanced course is designed for those who wish to earn a commission in the U.S. Army. Students who complete the ROTC program are commissioned as second lieutenants and serve a three-year active duty tour.

Patrick Chosen Miss Black ASU

The Black Students Association sponsored its annual Miss Black ASU Pageant on Jan. 30. Janice Patrick of Beebe, a junior radio-TV major, was the winner with Carmen Holines of Greenville, Miss., first runner-up and Ramona Simpson of Little Rock second runner-up.

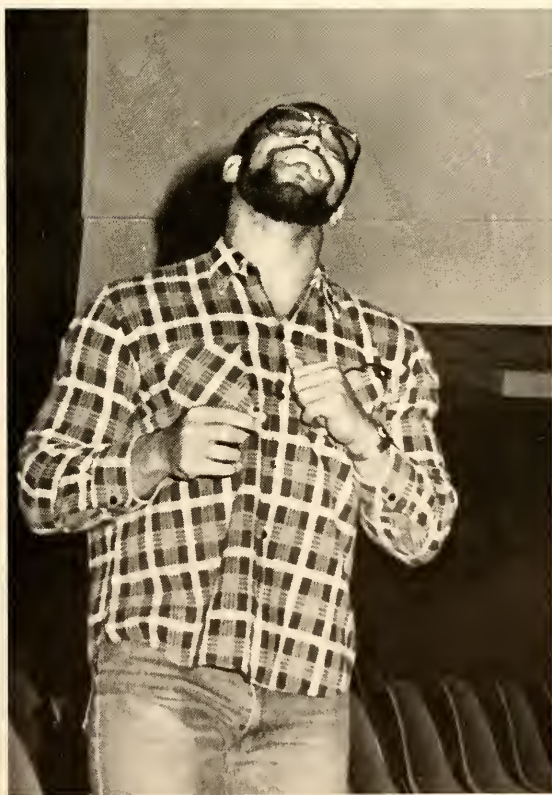

BSA Celebrates Black History Month

ASU's Black Students Association participated in Black History Month by observing Black History Week on the ASU Campus. Two of the events during the week were a concert by the United Voices Choir with the theme "The Roots of Black Gospel Music," and a lecture by Maynard Jackson, former Mayor of Atlanta.

Student Government Association Holds Election

SGA elections were held Tuesday, March 2 with Rex Davis of Wynne being selected by the students to succeed former SGA president Mark Hayes. Davis ran on the USA Party ticket. Bob Thomas of West Memphis won over Steve Laney of Charlotte, N.C. in a runoff election for vice president March 4. Thomas ran as an unaffiliated candidate.

Miss ASU

The yearly Miss ASU contest, sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, was held in March of 1981 in Wilson Auditorium. The new Miss ASU, Sheila Jones of Malden, Mo., was crowned by the outgoing queen, Cathy Drake of Hot Springs. Miss Jones, who represented Kappa Delta sorority, presented a tap-jazz routine as her talent. Monique Anderson, the Alpha Omicron Pi representative from Waldron, won the talent competition with a vocal medley from "The Sound of Music."

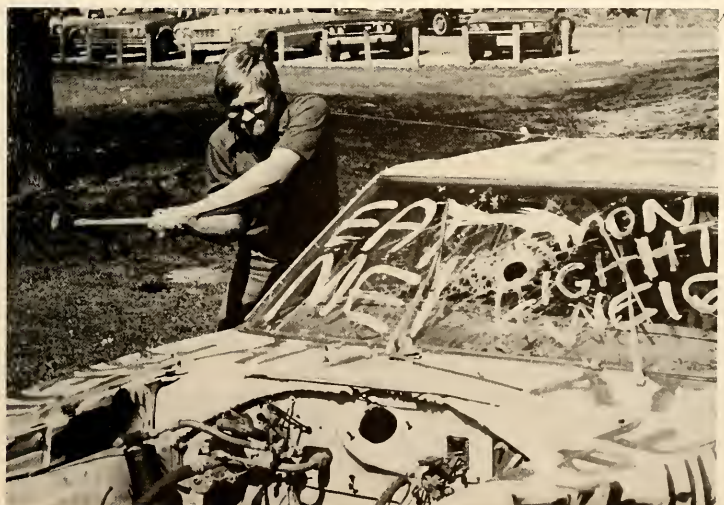

In the Spring of 1981, ASU held its first Spring Festival. It was a fun day for students and it was a big success. The festival is to be an annual event. Different organizations on campus sponsor booths at the festival to raise money for the ASU scholarship fund.

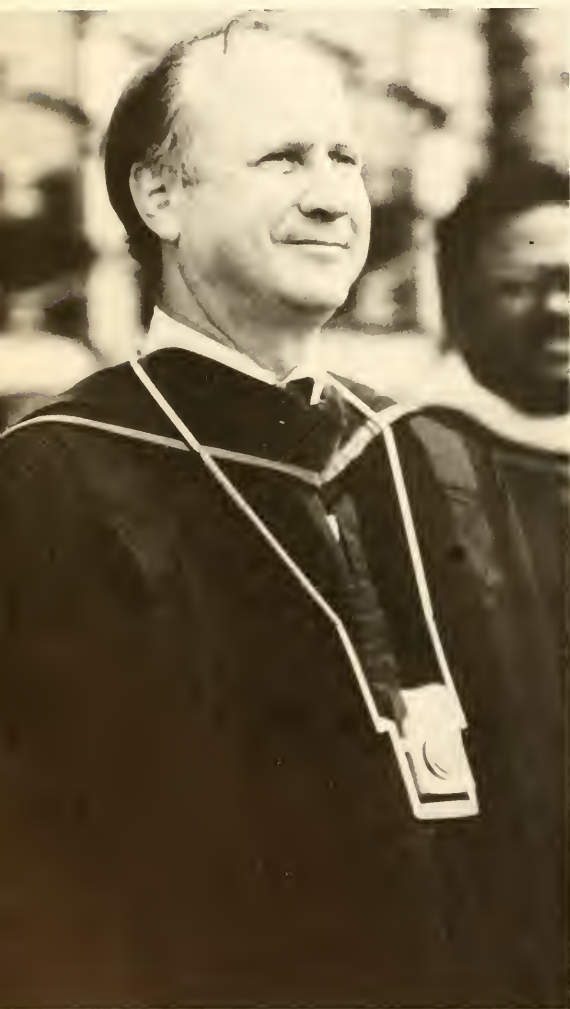

Festival

There were many games and activities for students to enjoy. Some of them were a kissing booth, a ring toss, an apple bob, a car bash and a pie throw. The festival was complete with plenty of good food and clowns. An artist drew caricature drawings and for the more competitive, there were horseshoe throwing contests, three-legged races, football throwing contests and frisbee throws.

Emmylou Harris

Emmylou Harris, who was chosen Best Female Vocalist of 1980 by the Country Music Association, performed March 12, 1981 at Indian Fieldhouse. Ms. Harris and a local group, The Hungry's, performed for about 2,000 people in the concert sponsored by the ASU Union Board and radio station KNEA.

KD Walkathon

More than 350 people walked in the KD Walkathon that was held Oct. 18. The Kappa Delta Sorority raised about $2,000 for its philanthropy, the John T. Gray School in Jonesboro.

Lambda Chi Little 500

Spring activity at ASU includes the Lambda Chi Little 500. The competitive event is held between Greek groups in activities such as tug-of-war, an obstacle course, relays, tricycle races and push car races.

The Chi O's won the women's competition and the Pike's won the men's competition. The money raised was donated to the American Cancer Society, Lambda Chi's philanthropy.

AOPi Songfest

The AOPi's held their annual Songfest last spring in the Carl R. Reng Ballroom and cleared over $500 for their philanthropy, The Arthritis Foundation.

Winners of the event were the Teke's and Phi Mu's, first place, and Pike's and Chi O's second place.

Sports

The Indians were a competitive and improved team, despite losing to the University of Richmond Spiders, 24-20.

The Indians led 20-17 in the seesaw battle going into the fourth quarter, but were unable to take advantage of several breaks and good field position. Richmond was able to capitalize on an ASU error, scoring the winning touchdown after recovering an ASU fumble on the Indian 36-yard line.

Indians Fall to Richmond 20-24

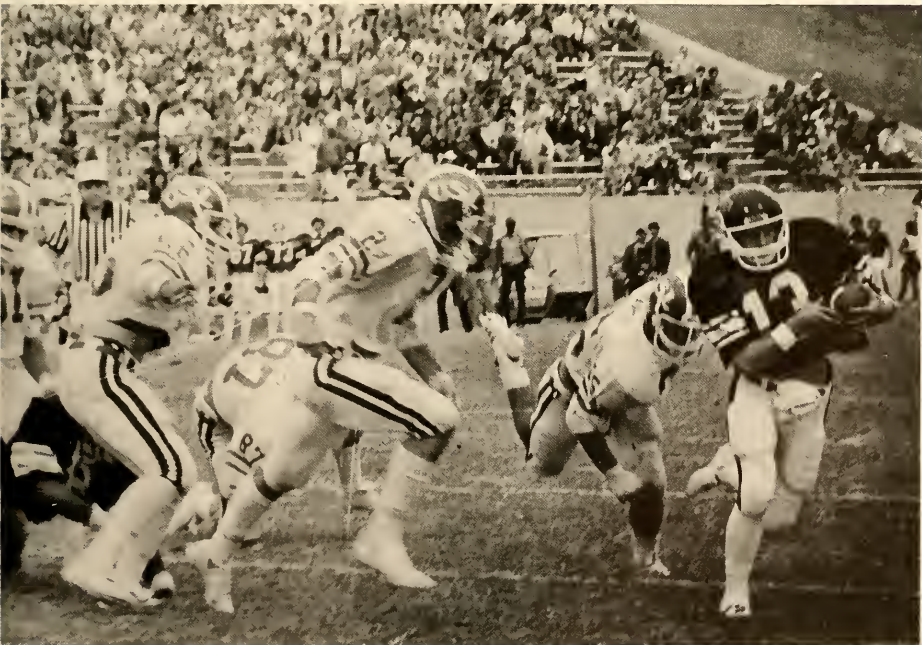

The Indians came up with a 14-3 homecoming victory over the University of Southwestern Louisiana.

Junior Waddell Kelly, ASU's and the SLC's leading rusher, scored the first touchdown of his career on the first drive of the game. Kelly went on to score the other touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter.

The Indian wishbone offense came into the game ranked fifth in the nation in rushing.

Indians Top the Cajuns 14-3

ASU Slips to UTC, 3-2

The Indians and Tennessee — Chattanooga combined for a total of 20 fumbles as they played on a rain soaked field.

The Indian defense, plus the playing conditions, gave UTC's high ranked passing offense very little and its running game virtually nothing but the Moccasins cashed in on their one good drive of the game for a fourth quarter field goal.

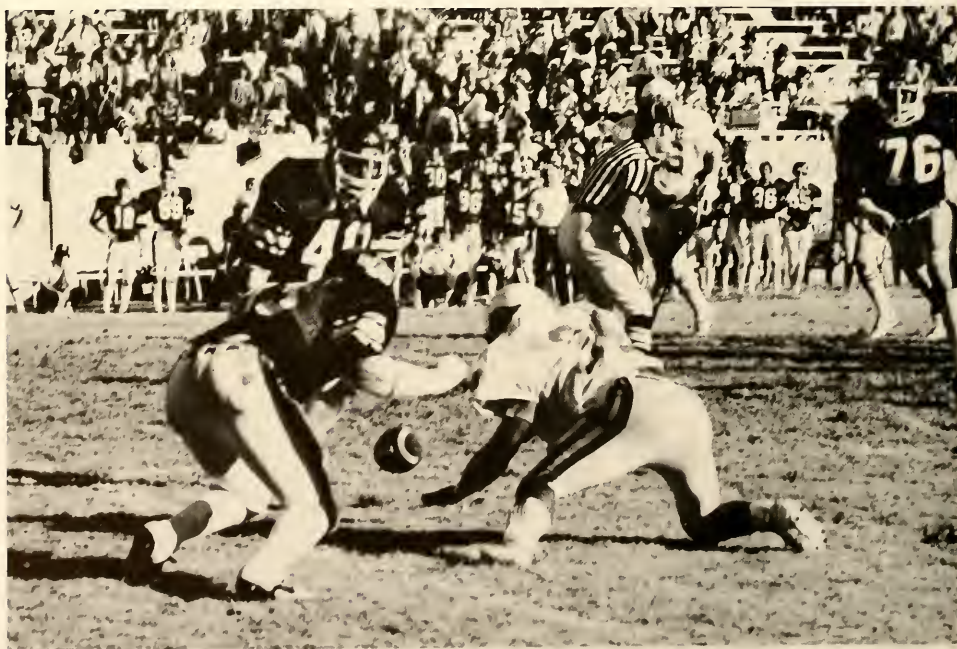

Even though the Indians had 12 fumbles, they had a chance to win on a 37-yard field goal attempt with 14 seconds left in the game, but a school record 13th fumble was added leaving the Indians with no time outs. The Tribe could not get another attempt off before the clock ran down.

After floundering around for more than a half and falling behind 9-0, the Indians did everything right in a 70-yard drive scoring 7 for ASU. The Indians took a 10-9 lead on a first play of the final period with a 41-yard field goal by Scott McDonald.

The Indians then intercepted a Lamar pass and scored two plays later and ASU had the final 16-9 win.

ASU Comes From Behind;
Beats Lamar 16-9

ASU defeated Tulsa 31-7 in the Indians' last game of the season. Tulsa was completely shut out during the first half giving ASU a 17-0 halftime lead. Tulsa scored its only points of the game in the third quarter. The Indians rushed for 407 yards despite the cold weather. The win gave the Indians a 6-5 record for the year.

Indians Put on Probation by NCAA

The Indians suffered a disappointment when the NCAA put them on probation for recruiting violations. As a result the Indians were not eligible for any conference titles or television appearances.

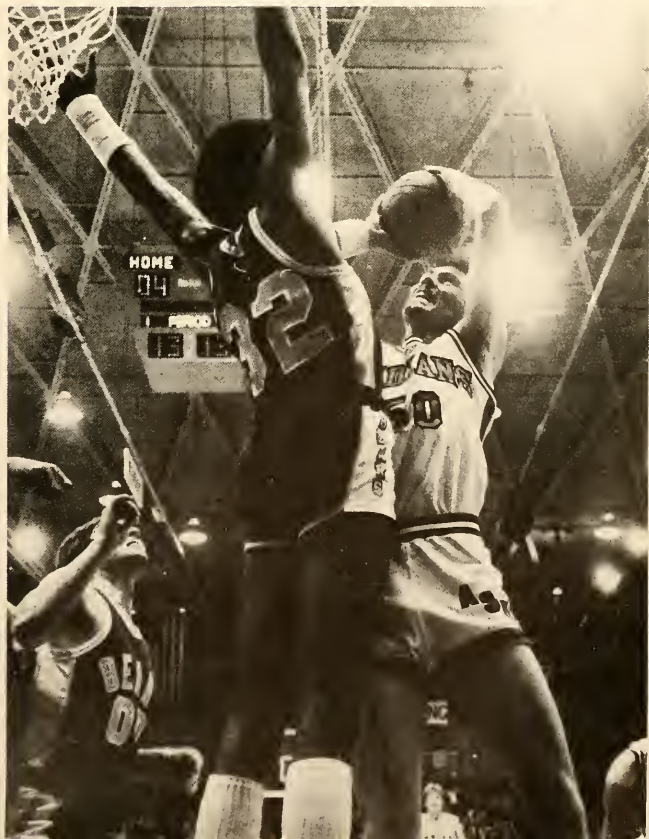

The Indians were off to a great start, but somewhere along the way they lost the momentum that propelled an 8-0 start for the Tribe.

After losing their first three conference matches, the Tribe shocked the SLC leaders Lamar with a 59-58 upset. The team fell just shy of a national record by drilling 21 of 26 shots from the floor which averaged out to 80.8 percent. The national record was 81 percent.

Volleyball Tommies Finish 29-5

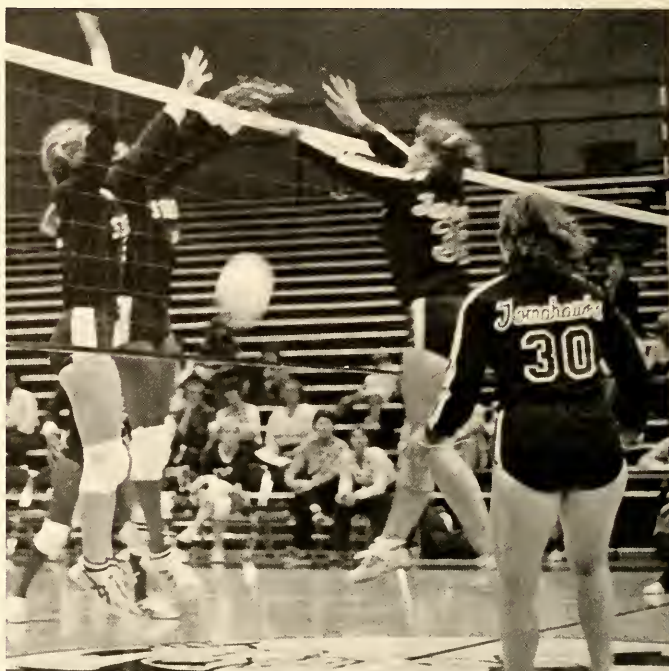

Tommies Undefeated in Conference

ASU's volleyball Tomahawks continued their dominance in the Arkansas Women's Intercollegiate Sports Association with their sixth consecutive league championship.

They finished 29-5 overall and had a perfect 13-0 record in conference play. They extended their winning streak over AWISA opponents to an unprecedented 97 straight under the leadership of Coach Kay Woodiel.

ASU finished the year ranked 19 nationally among Division II teams after peaking at number nine midway through the season.

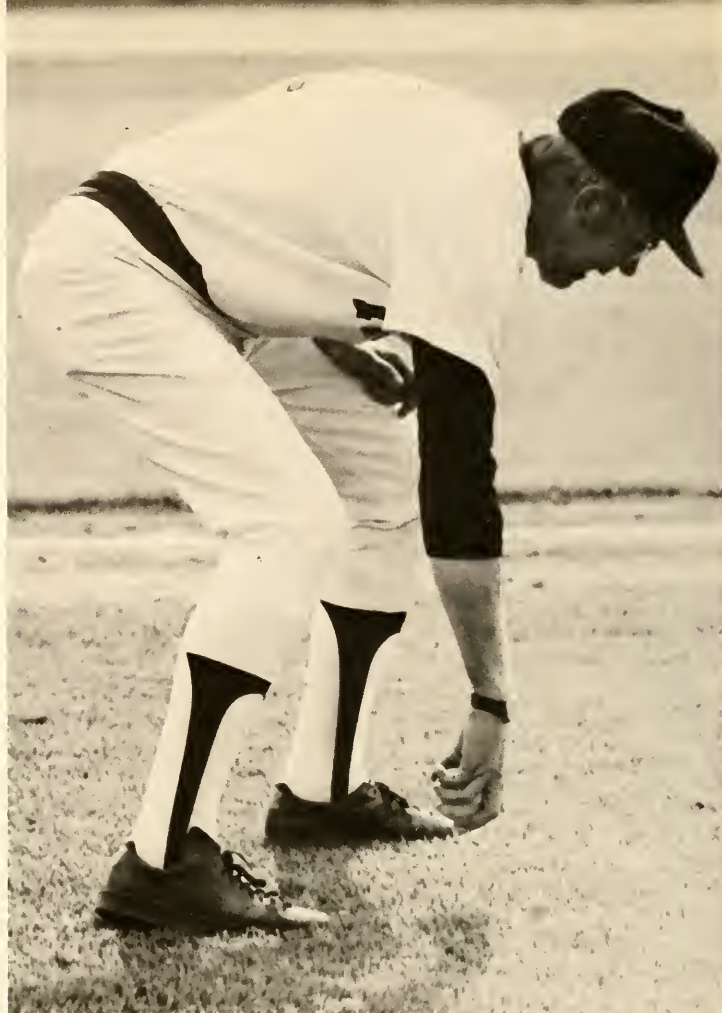

Named to the All-AWISA team were senior Sandy Nitz of Beatrice, Neb., junior Ann Williams of Bloomfield, Mo., and sophomore Risa Ramsey of Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

The baseball Indians were much improved in 1981, boasting a 17-20 record. This marked much improvement over 1980's 5-36 record.

The Indians practiced daily in hopes of improving more in the 1982 season.

Baseball Indians — A Much Improved Team

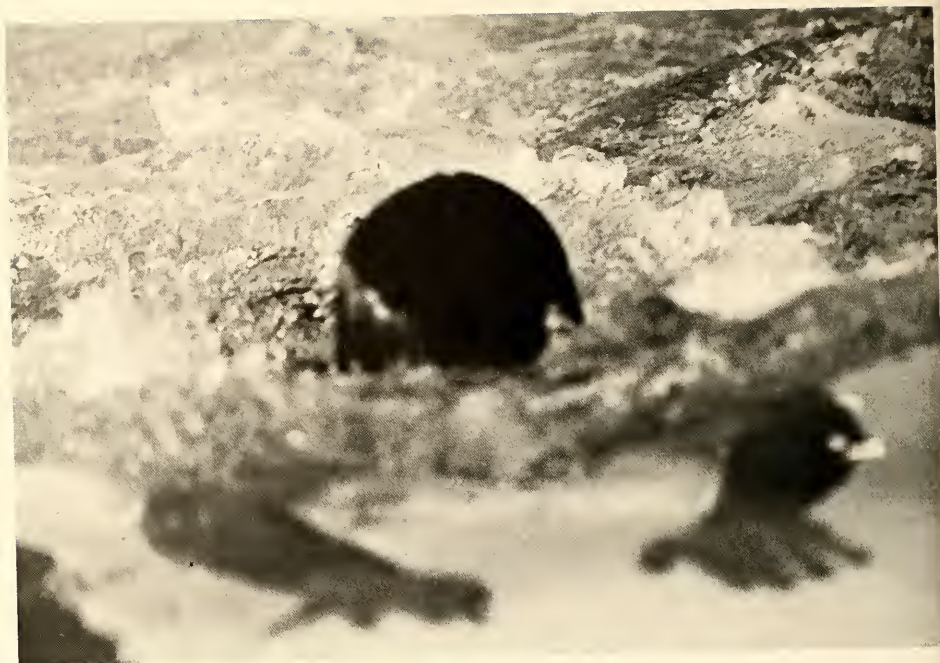

The ASU rifle team won the Southland Conference title for the second consecutive year. This was also the second year the team went undefeated in SLC competition. Ross Morgan, a freshman from Blytheville, was the outstanding team member and won first place in individual honors in the two largest indoor tournaments. The overall record of 21-6 was the best record for the team in 25 years.

Swim Team

ASU's swim team was improved in its second year of competition. Despite the small squad and lack of swimmers to compete in some events, this year's season could be summed up as "quite successful."

Tomahawks Have 12-11 Season; 11-7 in Conference Play

The Tomahawks finished the season with a 12-11 record. ASU went 11-7 in conference play. Linda Allison was the team's top scorer, averaging 15.1 points a game. Loretta Jamieson was top in rebounding, pulling down an average of 7.4 a game.

Talented Tribe Lacks Running Depth

The 1982 vaulting, jumping and throwing specialists are probably the greatest collection ASU has ever had.

Headliner Al "Sweetwater" Joyner won the SLC title in the high hurdles and triple jump.

The team is hoping to be a favorite in the conference championships this year, but depth is a problem in the running events.

Who's Who

Forty-nine students were selected to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges for 1981-82. Selection was based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

More than 1,200 students were selected this year from institutions of higher education in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

ASU students who were selected were honored at a Who's Who Recognition Night Nov. 12. The students and their parents were honored by the deans of their respective colleges and departments and presented their certificates in the Ballroom of the Reng Center. A reception followed.

Those selected appear in this section in alphabetical order with their hometowns and majors listed, as well as some of the organizations in which each participated during their years at Arkansas State University.

A Look at the Editors

To God be the glory.
Leah Blevins

As the final pages are completed, I have time to reflect on my year as co-editor of the 1982 Indian. I have enjoyed the opportunity of putting together a book that will be representative of the ASU students and faculty for years to come. The position has allowed me to gain valuable experience, especially in working under pressure. When a deadline is hours away, and you still do not have pictures . . . there is pressure!

I have to say that the photography staff did pull through for me in the end. I guess they were just testing me. I just want to tell them "sorry" for being demanding at times.

Vicki was a great help this year as assistant editor. She relieved the load for me and wrote all that copy I hated to write. I also have to thank Polly for helping me out when I needed her on staff. Yearbook advisor Tom Manning was always there when I needed assistance and he has been an important part of this year's book.

A special thanks to Leah, my co-editor, who was easy to work with. I think we shared a lot of the same ideas and I felt like she put forth her best effort to make the yearbook a success.

I hope you have enjoyed "taking a look at ASU" because it was done for you. I also hope that Indian '82 covers everything that is important to you and in years to come you will often look at it to refresh your memories of ASU.
